Full member applications should also include a relevant turnover declaration* covering the previous calendar year by separate cover to ensure confidentiality.

*Relevant turnover definition:

For the purpose of determining the relevant turnover of a Company, sales of flavourings, flavour substances, colours, preservatives and the miscellaneous products sold with food flavourings to the food, animal feeds, beverage, pharmaceutical, tobacco, flavouring essential oils and similar trades shall be included at their full value; sales of fruit juice compounds shall be included at 25% of their sales value.

The declaration should reflect UK market sales, i.e. sales to UK customers regardless of country of manufacture, or total sales minus exports.

Members are assured that individual turnover figures are kept confidential within the UK Flavour Association Secretariat and are not shared with other member companies or external parties.

From the UK Flavour Association Constitution:

4. MEMBERSHIP

- a. Qualification of Full Membership
Any person, firm or body corporate established in the UK who sells and or manufactures flavourings, flavourings substances or essential oils either in the UK or overseas and who sells the said flavourings to another person, firm or body corporate may be eligible for full membership.
- b. Qualification of Associate Members
Any person, firm or body corporate that are substantial manufacturers within the UK of flavourings for processing and use in their own products but not for re-sale may be admitted to associate membership.
- c. Observer members
Companies providing supporting services to those fulfilling the criteria of 4 a) or b) and in clear need of regulatory information regarding flavourings may be admitted to observer membership
- d. Consultant members
Persons who offers consulting services to companies fulfilling the criteria of 4 a), b) or c) may be admitted to consultant membership. Membership should not be seen as an endorsement of their services.
- e. Admission of Members
Application for membership shall be made to the Secretary in writing and shall be proposed and seconded by members of the Association. The Executive Committee shall, by a simple majority, with the Chairman having a casting vote, decide whether or not an applicant shall be admitted and decide the appropriate grade of membership.
- f. Condition of membership
All members must comply with the EFFA and IOFI constitution and statutes. Failure to do so will result in expulsion from the Association.
