

A taste of our industry links

The UK Flavour Association is the leading organisation dealing with the legislative and technical needs of the flavouring industry and over forty member companies.

We are active across the UK and Europe through our relationships with a range of stakeholders: from government bodies, to food and standards organisations – check out our extensive links across the industry on the chart below!

The food and drink industry is the biggest manufacturing sector in the UK – larger than automotive and aerospace combined!<sup>1</sup>

There are 7,400 food and drink manufacturing companies in the UK and 96% of them are SMEs<sup>1</sup>

Over 430,000 people are employed in the UK food and drink industry<sup>1</sup>

The UK's top three export markets are Ireland, the USA and France<sup>1</sup>
